

MARSHALL REPUBLICAN.

Vol. XVI.

MARSHALL, SALINE COUNTY, MISSOURI OCTOBER 18, 1907.

No. 89

DEATHS

Valentine Heilman.

died at his home five miles north of Marshall Tuesday at 1 p. m. aged 89 years, of old age. His funeral service was conducted by Father O'Neil at the Catholic church at 9 a. m. Wednesday after which his remains were laid to rest in Ridge Park cemetery.

Miss Susie Hale Richardson died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Richardson, 3 miles east of Gilliam, Friday, Oct. 11th, at 1:50 p. m., aged 17 years and 3 months. She died of typhoid fever. Miss Richardson was a grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cross.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 2 p. m. at the Gilliam Baptist Church conducted by Rev. J. E. Norvell.

Mrs. Perry Davis

died Tuesday morning at her home in Slater, of a paralytic stroke received several weeks ago. She had been in poor health about two years and her death was not unexpected.

Mrs. Davis was born and raised in the Good Hope neighborhood and had the distinction of having been a faithful member of the Baptist church for 45 years. She was a daughter of Mrs. Jane Huff, of this city and sister of Prof. J. S. M. Huff; Slater; Col. V. V. Huff, Marshall; Daniel Huff, Gilliam, and others. Eight children all of age, survive her besides her husband.

Funeral services were held at Good Hope Wednesday conducted by Rev. W. P. Clark. Mrs. Davis was paid many high tributes by her neighbors as being an excellent Christian lady with a character seldom surpassed.

Mrs. Lee C. Jett

died suddenly at her home four miles east of Miami Sunday at 4 a. m. of a goitre in her neck, aged 40 years. She leaves a husband and two daughters—Mildred aged 2 years, and a 2-week-old baby. She also leaves three brothers and a sister as follows: A. W. Heath, Mt. Leonard; Mrs. B. L. Stipes, Fayette; F. C. and J. F. Salmons, n. r. h. of Marshall. Her parents reside west of Marshall.

Mrs. Jett was a splendid lady whose death is greatly regretted and her absence keenly felt.

Funeral services were held at Harmony church at 2 p. m. Monday, which were largely attended.

James M. Ashley

Another of Marshall's best citizens has passed away in the person of J. M. Ashley, who died at his home on West Boyd Monday at 10 a. m., aged 73 years, 2 weeks and 1 day, after a long and painful illness of a complication of asthma and bronchial trouble.

Mr. Ashley was born in Kentucky September 29, 1834, and for the past twenty years has been a citizen of Marshall. He was married first to Miss Mary Hubble, of Kentucky, February 28, 1860. Four children were born to this union, Mrs. Al. Darling, Miss Eva and J. L. Ashley, of this city, and A. C. Ashley, of Hope, Kansas. He was married to the surviving wife, who was Miss Anna L. Summers, at her home in Winchester, Ill., July 29, 1869. Three children were born to the second union, Mrs. Fred Hightshoe, of Sedalia, Mrs. Scott Chaffee and Ernest Ashley, of Kansas City. The children were all with the father in his last hours except A. C. Ashley, and he was here last week.

Funeral services were held at the First M. E. Church, of which deceased was a faithful member, and were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Geo. W. Shepherd, after which his remains were laid to rest in Ridge Park cemetery. J. M. Huff, M. C. Chaffee, Henry Johnson, A. T. Swisher, Berry Augur, Chas. Petry and Q. N. Merrill acted as pallbearers.

Roland Greene

died at Denver, Col., Sunday noon Oct. 13th, as the result of a stroke of apoplexy, aged 65 years. He was on a visit to his son, Geo. M., when he was stricken down.

Mr. Greene was a C. & A. special agent for 20 years and resided at Slater 10 years. He was well known in Saline. He leaves a brother, George M. and two sisters, Miss Sarah, and Mrs. J. T. Moss, at Gilliam. His remains were taken to Louisiana, Mo., for burial Wednesday.

William Jackson

col., died suddenly at his home on West Morgan last Friday of a paralytic stroke, aged about 90 years. His funeral services were held at the North Street M. E. church, conducted by Rev. Reeves, after which the remains were laid to rest in Fairview cemetery.

Small Blaze

F. Solomon and wife returned from a visit to St. Louis last Thursday. That evening about seven o'clock a fire broke out in their home on West North Street which did a damage amounting to about $50—covered by insurance. Mr. Solomon says the fire was no doubt caused by mice biting matches. Mrs. Solomon assisted the fire department in extinguishing the blaze, got wet and is now confined with a case of grip. Mr. Solomon saw President Roosevelt while at St. Louis, so these trifling incidents are not worrying him!

LOCAL MARKET

Marshall, Oct. 18, 1907.
Corrected weekly by Swift & Co.
Butter..... 19c
Eggs..... 17 1/2c
Hens..... 7 1/2c
Ducks..... 8c
Turkeys..... 9c
Geese..... 3c
Spring Chickens..... 7 1/2c
Wheat and corn corrected weekly by Rea & Page Milling Co.
Wheat..... $1.00
Corn..... 52c

The Carnival

The Eagle Carnival is proving a big success. A very large crowd was in Marshall yesterday and prospects are that today and tomorrow will be still bigger days. We are unable to give all the premiums as the awards are not all made. The awards on farm products were as follows:

White corn—1st premium, J. M. Sphar; 2nd Thos. Hall, jr.
Yellow corn—1st W. S. Holmes; 2nd Jos. Leimkuhler.
Mixed corn—1st Judge R. B. Duglas, 2d, F. S. Brown.
Red corn—John Brown.
Wheat—Robt. L. Hyatt.
Oats—1st, W. O. Zink; 2d Ben L. McRoberts; 3d I. N. Huff.
Cabbage—E. A. Booker.
Potatoes—1st, Mrs. C. W. Armstrong; 2d, W. M. Ashford; 3d W. H. Newell.
Sweet Potatoes—Emmett Smith.
Pumpkins—R. E. Williams.

Got the Harness

Miss Helen Huff, daughter of J. M. Huff yesterday won the $18 set of buggy harness in the Eagle Contest offered by C. L. Reppenhagen. Mrs. Frank Justice won second premium. There was a record breaking crowd present and many contestants.

Knights of Columbus Banquet

The initiation ceremony of the Knights of Columbus as mentioned last week proved an enjoyable occasion. The gathering was held at Odd Fellows hall. After the initiation and other business the assemblage repaired to the convent dining rooms where plates for 400 guests had been laid.

Wm. A. Meschede, Grand Knight, presided as toastmaster. A number of short and interesting talks were made by prominent visitors from a distance.

The most interesting part of the program was no doubt the menu, as the banquet prepared was first-class in every respect.

STORM AVERTED.

Colony Fight Smoothed Over at Friday's Meeting.

Thursday evening of last week some black, heavy clouds hung over the colony figuratively speaking, and there was talk of ousters, injunctions and other terrible doings at Friday's meeting of the board. After the meeting all was merriment.

The Democrat-News, which knows everything, Saturday said:

"While nothing has been given out for publication, yet we are pleased to announce that we are reliably informed that the matters of difference heretofore existing between the Board and Superintendent have been adjusted and that harmony has been established among those in authority at this institution."

The Kansas City Star said that Dr. Whittington would remain six months longer and then be succeeded by Dr. C. B. Simcoe.

Dr. John R. Hall, a member of the board said: "The Star article is wrong as nothing was mentioned regarding Dr. Whittington's successor. An agreement was reached which leaves it optional with Dr. Whittington whether or not he will resign."

From another source we were informed that the fight on Dr. Whittington was dropped on his promise to resign within the next six months.

R. M. Abercrombie, the Republican member of the board, made the following statement for the Republican Wednesday:

"At the meeting held on Friday, Oct. 11, 1907, all differences and friction heretofore existing between the Board of Managers and the Supt. were satisfactorily adjusted to all concerned."

Sold Out

J. P. Orr, who had charge of Frank Mitchell's jewelry store at Higginsville, was here several days visiting old friends. The Higginsville stock has been sold and Mr. Orr expects to locate elsewhere.

Church Notes

Evangelistic Meetings will begin next Sunday at the First M. E. Church. The singing evangelist, J. F. Schofield and wife, from the Moody Institute, Chicago, will do the singing, assisted by the choir. Everybody is invited.

There will be preaching at the Salt Springs Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening by the pastor, Rev. Ira Barnett.

The Sunday Schools of Malta Bend and Salt Springs will have a union picnic at Houston's grove tomorrow to which all members are invited.

The pie supper given by the First M. E. church ladies Friday evening evening netted them $19.75.

The First Presbyterian church expects to commence immediately the erection of an addition to the church to be used as a Sunday School room. It is to cost about $3500.

Pelot-Hall Wedding

The marriage of Lieut. Joseph Hall-Pelot and Miss Agnes Lester Hall Tuesday evening eclipsed all recent social events. It was much talked of in advance and will be referred to as time goes by as one of Marshall's biggest social affairs.

The wedding occurred at the handsome residence of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. John R. Hall, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. E. Abbot of this city and W. R. Doherty, of St. Joseph. After the ceremony a reception was tendered to a very large number of invited guests.

Lieut. Pelot was born and raised at Blackburn, graduated from West Point and served a year in the Philippines. He is a splendid young man, of fine appearance and abilities.

Miss Hall is one of Marshall's most popular young society ladies. She is well fitted to brighten and make attractive the home she goes to.

After a few stops the newly married couple will go to housekeeping near San Francisco where the groom is stationed at present.

Many prominent out-of-town guests were present, among them being Mrs. Jos. W. Folk and others from Jefferson City.

An unusually large number of handsome and valuable wedding presents were received by the young couple.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

J. L. Clark..... Marshall
Edith N. Alexander..... Marshall
Frank J. Blomsh..... Slater
Amanda S. Fischer..... Napton
J. H. Adams (col)..... Arrow Rock
Phoebe Brown (col)..... Arrow Rock
J. J. Brown..... Arrow Rock
Martha Brooks..... Arrow Rock
Joseph H. Pelot..... Blackburn
Agnes Lester Hall..... Marshall
John M. O'Riley..... Marshall
Mary Keilner..... Marshall
N. Polndexter (col)..... Slater
Mrs. Palle Montgomery..... Slater
Chas. Washington (col)..... Marshall
Annie B. Grimes (col)..... Marshall
John W. Elder..... Slater
Stacia Robinson..... Slater
John Williams (col)..... Sedalia
Flor E. Miller (col)..... Marshall
Oman Rozell..... Malta Bend
Olie Frazee..... Malta Bend

Uncalled-for Letters

Remaining in the Marshall postoffice Oct. 16, 1907, which will be sent to the dead-letter office if not called for within two weeks.

Misses Ellen Baker, Mary Ellen Gooch, Julia Miller, Carrie Nickens, Mesdames Emma Green, Anna Hill, C. W. Lane, Luella Seiger.
Mr. John B. Davis, James P. Dow, Dr. E. M. Duncan, Wm. Elsch, I. W. Fry, Joseph Green, Dr. Heatherly, Stephen Holloway, Edward Johnson, A. J. Kaesler, Joe Macky, Drs. Ed. Pearce, J. J. Rose, J. W. Smith, I. J. Wear.

M. T. Chastain, P. M.

Read the Marshall Republican.

CATARRI
HEAD OF THROAT LUNGS TOMACH
KIDNEY BLADDER FEMALE ORGANS
WORDS OF PRAISE.
Mrs. Jos. D. Denis, June Lorette, P. Q., writes: "I am cured of the catarrh with which I was afflicted for four months. I owe my perfect cure from this ailment to your remedy, Peruna and Manilla."

PERUNA
THE GREAT TONIC
HALF ACTUAL SIZE.
Louis Byrns, auctioneer, commission merchant and business broker, 415 Richmond street, London, Ont., writes: "I suffered with chronic catarrh. After spending money for medicines and doctor bills, Peruna was recommended. After using it I found relief. I wish to convince others of the merits of your remedy."

Real Estate Transfers

Loretta Literary & Benevolent Inst to Cong. Lady of Slaves 1 to 4 to 12 a 6 English add to Marshall..... 9000
Joseph Heilman to James A. Blackmore 40a and 28 51-21..... 2000
Leadora Oser to W. E. Parrish 1 133 E Marshall..... 500
Ralph T. Barkdale to Pearl Jenkins 13 b 37 Slater..... 650

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Wilson returned Tuesday from a visit to their old home at West Mansfield, Ohio. They had an enjoyable time and were surprised at the wonderful strides made by that country since their departure.

I now have a big supply of sorghum and those whom I could not supply before can now get all they want. Come early and get high-grade sorghum from W. C. Hoffman, oct Marshall, Mo.

J. I. Killion and son, J. W., of near Sweet Springs, and Elias I. Smith, of near Houstonia, bonded the C. & A. here Tuesday on their way to North Carolina to visit their old home. They will also visit the Jamestown Exposition. It's their first visit back in nearly forty years.

Miss Schulte, of Osage county, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank Valentine north of town.

TO OUR FRIENDS AND PATRONS:

The Officers and Directors of

The Wood & Huston Bank

beg to announce the completion of their new banking house with new equipment, including modern burglar proof vault, Manganese steel safe of latest pattern and safety deposit boxes, and invite you and your friends to an inspection thereof on

THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY,

October 17th, 18th and 19th, 1907,

9 o'clock A.M. to 3 o'clock P.M.

Marshall, Missouri,

Saturday Night, 7:30 to 9:30.

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder

Made from cream of tartar derived solely from grapes, the most delicious and healthful of all fruit acids.